

Electronic "Wholesale Credit"
Transaction Subject to Uniform
Commercial Code Article 4A

Provisional Payment: Credit given by us to you, with respect to an automated clearing house credit entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for such entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive such a final settlement, you are hereby notified and agree that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e. the originator of the entry) shall not be deemed to have paid you in the amount of such entry.

Notice of Receipt of Entry: Under the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, we are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item and we will not do so. However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payment in the periodic statements we provide you.

Choice of Law: We may accept on your behalf, payment to your account, which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses ("ACH") and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the state of New York, unless it has been otherwise specified in a separate agreement that the law of some other state shall govern.

We reserve the right to at any time require not less than 7 days notice, in writing, before each withdrawal from an interest-bearing account other than a time deposit, or from any other savings account as defined by Regulation D.
